

Missouri's Food Stamps (SNAP) Policy
WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR FOOD STAMPS?
Flexibility	Current policy	Potential improvement
Gross income limit How much can family members earn while being eligible?	$2,797*/month (or 130% FPL for a family of three in 2024).	Consider adopting BBCE and extending gross income limit to 200% FPL for eligible families, as many other states have done (e.g., Louisiana), to expand eligibility and soften benefit cliffs.
Asset Limit How many assets can families retain in savings while still being eligible for food stamps?	Families can retain up to $2,750.	Adopting BBCE would enable the state to remove the asset limit so households with children can retain savings while receiving nutritional support (e.g., Georgia). Alternatively, raise the asset limit. Example: Texas permits $5,000.
Transitional Benefit Alternative Does Missouri provide families who are losing TANF cash assistance with automatic SNAP eligibility for a few months?	Yes, according to legislation passed in 2023 . (This measure is subject to appropriation and may not be in effect.)	N/A
* Current administrative guidelines may present different income amounts depending on when updates to the current federal poverty guidelines are implemented.

Consider fully eliminating the ban on those convicted of drug-related felonies, as other states have done (e.g., Illinois, Iowa).
Extending eligibility to some federally ineligible noncitizens using state assistance programs Has Missouri extended SNAP eligibility to immigrants who are ineligible for SNAP under federal guidelines?	No.	Provide nutritional assistance to newly-arrived families in which parents are awaiting work authorization (e.g., Illinois, Maine, Minnesota).

Consider providing online renewal services to reduce administrative costs and streamline processes for busy parents (e.g., Nebraska, Kentucky).
